

AGILE MANIFESTO

AGILE MANIFESTO THE COMPLETE GUIDE

WHAT IS AGILE MANIFESTO?

Agile Manifesto is a set of guiding values and principles for Agile methodology. A group of programmers who were looking for a better method to create software created it in 2001. The Agile Manifesto values “individuals and interactions over processes and tools, working software over comprehensive documentation, customer collaboration over contract negotiation, and responding to change over following a plan.”

AGILE MANIFESTO VALUES

- Individuals and interactions over processes and tools
- Working software over comprehensive documentation
- Customer collaboration over contract negotiation
- Responding to change by following a plan

AGILE MANIFESTO PRINCIPLES

- Customer Satisfaction through Early and Continuous Delivery of Software
- Embrace Changes in Requirements, Even Late in Development
- Deliver Working Software Frequently, with a Preference for Shorter Timescales

Agile development is a continuous improvement process. Encourage your team to regularly reflect on their performance and look for ways to improve their processes and practices. So don't wait – start putting the Agile Manifesto into practice today! Click the below link.
